

BLUEBIRD ELT TRAINING

ELT LESSON OBSERVATION
& FEEDBACK WORKSHOP

T raining for?

Senior ELT teachers and managers, and anyone who has to observe ELT lessons and give feedback. The workshop assumes the participant has at least 3 years teaching experience and a higher teaching qualification.

It is appropriate for both private language schools and higher-education sector ELT teachers and managers.

W hy do this workshop?

The observation of teaching and learning is an integral part of a teacher's development and a cornerstone of the educational quality cycle both in private and public sector. It is vital to get this process right for the teacher, the manager and the school, so that it's meaningful and constructive.

This workshop demystifies the theoretical process, offers practical advice, tips and information and gives senior ELT teachers a highly useful framework for every stage of a formal lesson observation.

W hat are the aims?

This is a two-day practical workshop in developing skills for ELT lesson observation, assessment and feedback skills. Skills covered are:

Setting up a formal observation

Building & planning teacher success

Giving constructive written & oral feedback

Observations skills:
completing a running commentary

Assessing teacher planning:
looking at lesson plan design and planning of target language

Assessing teacher practice:
deciding what to look for, decoding the class, and determining the teacher's level and how to help them develop their skills to next level

H ow is the workshop delivered?

This is an interactive workshop which is delivered through varied activities and followed up with a supportive blog.
